

UG PROJECT ALLOCATION POLICY

Step 1: Initially a faculty list is prepared including the individual faculty domain of interest and contact details.

Step 2: Students are asked to form their project groups which are ranked according to the group average marks. There are minimum three and maximum four students are allowed in a group.

Step 3: First, students are provided only the domain names to fill up according to their own priority.

Step 4: Then the details of the faculty list are provided to the students to select the guide.

Step 5: Groups are allocated according to the students' domain priority. Students can talk to the respective supervisors.

Step 6: The groups are also allowed to select their guide from other departments of RCCIIT or any other organizations. Those who are selecting guides from other organizations, they have to take one internal guide from the department.

Step 7: The groups are evenly distributed among the faculty members.
